

2. page 138, first equation: If the surrounding medium absorbs, this equation uses complex division, i.e., $m_r = (n_s - ik_s)/(n_m - ik_m)$. But the surrounding medium is usually assumed to be nonabsorbing, in which case $k_m = 0$ and the equation is correct as written.